Endorsements

"Mark is a very talented solicitor and someone that I can trust to provide solid practical advice, often at very short notice, in a friendly and approachable manner. He is able to quickly draw out the underlying commercial aspects of each transaction, and our fundamental needs, to bring about a timely legal conclusion. I would have no hesitation in recommending Mark to other clients and colleagues, and have done so on numerous occasions"

"I thoroughly enjoy working with Mark. We regularly use Mark because we trust his judgement and the quality of his advice. A key issue for us is being able to discuss our transactions both before and once we've instructed our advisors. Mark is always willing to chat through commercial points and help provide practical and considered opinions. This level of accessibility is critical to us being able to deliver good quality support to our clients and enables Mark to play an active role in helping us manage transactions. I have referred colleagues and clients to Mark because I know he does a good job and is straightforward to deal with."
