With 15 years practising as a lawyer and 4 years regularly acting as a mediator Siôn is acutely aware of the high costs, both financial and emotional, of disputes of all kinds but how effectively conducted mediation time and again achieves mutually beneficial resolutions. Experience enables Siôn to empathise with all parties and gives him confidence that mediation can work for them.

Professional Background

Siôn is a partner at Linder Myers LLP, which is based in Manchester and is one of the leading commercial and private client solicitors firms in the North West. With an honours degree in economics Siôn transferred to law on graduating. He joined Linder Myers in 1998 and he specialises in the fields of medical negligence, personal injury and solicitors' negligence.

Siôn handles complex high value cases. He finds resolving disputes for individuals who have suffered debilitating injuries or the death of family members especially fulfilling.

Endorsements

"Siôn shows an extremely high degree of continued professionalism and confidence in his mediation style. Ensuring all parties feel encouraged and understood, whilst managing to keep order in such an environment."

"His natural abilities and professionalism combined with his exceptional mediation skills, mark him out as a particularly talented and successful mediator, with an excellent reputation throughout the service"
(Karen Flowers- Mediation Services)

Other Experience

Siôn acts as a community mediator with Mediation Services. He is on the Management Committee of South Manchester Law Centre and a committee member of Manchester Area Bereavement Forum.

Panel Memberships

Siôn is a member of the Law Society's specialist Clinical Negligence Panel and he is accredited as a Senior Litigator with the Association of Personal Injury Lawyers.

Personal Interests

Siôn is married with two young children and lives in South Manchester. In his spare time he enjoys cooking, reading, music, film and theatre. Siôn supports Manchester City F.C. and practises Buddhist meditation.
