Dennis is a seasoned professional dispute resolution practitioner with over 20 years' full-time experience in resolving construction and commercial disputes, ranging in value from £5k to £5m, in litigation, arbitration, adjudication and mediation. With over 20 mediations to date to add to his tally of over 150 decisions as an adjudicator and awards as an arbitrator, Dennis brings to mediation an in-depth knowledge of dispute resolution and a wealth of experience of managing people, problems and process.

Professional Background

Dennis is a Chartered Civil Engineer, Chartered Quantity Surveyor and Chartered Arbitrator, with a First Degree in Civil Engineering and a Masters Degree in Commercial Laws, and over 35 years' practical experience in the construction industry as a Consulting Engineer, Contractor and, for the last 20 years, a dispute resolver.

Dennis is a panel-listed arbitrator with Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and Institution of Civil Engineers and a CI Arb, ICE and RICS panel construction mediator.

Endorsements

"His knowledge of the way the commercial world really works is invaluable."

"Has a knack of quickly getting to the heart of complex matters and identifying the key issues, and working with the parties to help them see things in a different light."

"An energetic lateral thinker, whose professionalism and commitment soon gains the trust and respect of laymen and lawyers alike."

Other Experience

Dennis is a CI Arb Wales committee member, a member of the Society of Construction Law, the Adjudication Society and RICS Arbrix Group. He is also a CIOB examiner for their Adjudication Decision Writing training programme and an ICE Civil Engineering Law and Contract Procedure examiner.

Panel Memberships

Dennis is a panel adjudicator with RIBA, RICS, CI Arb, CIOB, ICE, AICA & TeCSA, and an ICE panel conciliator.

Personal Interests

Dennis is an avid reader, a keen gardener and amateur league table tennis player and a optimistic follower of the fortunes of Welsh rugby.
