

ADR Group Commercial Mediator Profile

JANINE ALLEN

ADR Group Commercial Mediator

To appoint this mediator please email casemanagement@adrgroup.co.uk

Janine's background as a lawyer enables her to build the confidence and trust of the parties in order to deal effectively with a wide range of commercial disputes. Janine has the experience to operate with the autonomy required from a mediator and also to engage in reality testing of each party's case as a forerunner to a successful conclusion by way of settlement. Janine has been involved in excess of 30 mediations across a variety of commercial sectors, ranging from tens of thousands to multi-million disputes.

Professional Background

Janine qualified as a solicitor in 1989 and has been a partner in Halliwells LLP for the last seven years. Janine has extensive experience of advising upon most matters which come within the ambit of commercial litigation including professional negligence, and extending to contentious insolvency and banking. Her experience extends across high value contractual disputes to company disputes, professional negligence claims across all disciplines and all aspects of insolvency process both corporate and individual.

Janine became an accredited mediator in 2000 and has been committed to promoting mediation and alternative dispute resolution generally, for the last ten years.

Endorsements

"Janine manages to put the parties at their ease and steer them in a determined yet quiet way towards settlement".

"Janine has gained a broad ranging litigation background which is invaluable "

Other Experience

Janine is a member of the Law Society and of Manchester Law Society and is a governor of a local school.

Personal Interests

Janine is married and lives in Manchester. Janine enjoys walking, skiing and outdoor pursuits generally.