

ADR Net Corporate Members: Bond Pearce

Bond Pearce is a business law firm recognised independently through Chambers Guide to the Legal Profession as having a national reputation in providing corporate, commercial, real estate and dispute resolution services to some of the UK's pre-eminent corporate and public sector organisations.

With one of the largest dispute resolution practices in the country Bond Pearce has some of the UK's leading specialists covering a whole range of different areas, including regulatory, insurance and commercial disputes.

Our philosophy of focusing on resolving claims at the earliest possible opportunity means that we have fully embraced Alternative Dispute Resolution. We are proactive users with each of our dispute resolution practices having an accredited mediator experienced in driving forward ADR to ensure cost effective and speedy resolution of disputes.

We also have significant experience in adjudication, with a particular focus within the construction industry. The firm has two specialist arbitration partners, handling a broad range of institutional and ad hoc international arbitrations, with emphasis on engineering, commercial and energy claims.

Advising in excess of 40 FTSE 350 companies, Bond Pearce is one of the leading FTSE advisors outside of London. With offices in London, Bristol, Southampton, Plymouth and Aberdeen, clients have access to 80 partners and over 360 other legal professionals.
