Brachers LLP is a full service law firm which has evolved from its strong private client base in Kent by organic growth to become a leading corporate commercial law firm with a regional presence servicing high profile business and private clients.

It has maintained its long established status as a full service legal firm, but has developed its legal services around its extensive corporate, commercial, NHS and institutional client base. Its 25 partners and over 200 staff pride themselves on the firm's client care focus.

Its head office is conveniently located close to Maidstone town centre, with easy access to the M20. Thames Gateway, the largest regeneration programme in Europe, is nearby. It also has an office in central London and a growing portfolio of clients close to London.

Brachers has a thriving practice in corporate, commercial, property and employment attracting lawyers from London and the South East whose expertise is helping the firm to grow in strength and reputation.

Within the Dispute Resolution Team, there is a wide range of experience and expertise covering all aspects of dispute resolution to mediation. It has the largest debt recovery and insolvency team in the South and conducts substantial property and construction litigation, as well as all aspects of commercial and private client litigation. Other areas of speciality include planning, environmental and health and safety.
