

ADR Net Corporate Members: Watson Burton

Watson Burton is an established top 100 law firm. With almost 200 years' experience, we have a well-earned reputation for helping our clients succeed. We pride ourselves on our personal service and our ability to deliver winning results.

From offices in London, Newcastle and Leeds, we provide a proactive service; bring innovative thinking; and deliver value measured in our clients' own terms. Our supportive and dynamic lawyers provide practical commercial solutions working in partnership with clients to build long-term success.

Head of ADR at Watson Burton is Rob Langley, who is recognised as one of the UK's leading mediators.

We specialise in, and recommend, early strategic legal and tactical advice as soon as our clients realise a project/contract is not going well or they identify the potential for claims. This enables us to settle disputes on a sound commercial footing, as they arise.

We price our work on a realistic and commercial basis, estimating everything in advance. We do not carry out work which is unnecessary, and we stay within estimates, which are realistic and commercial. Watson Burrton has the resources to support clients fully with their legal requirements both in the UK and abroad.
