

Peter Brewer

Civil and Commercial Mediator

+44 (0) 20 3600 5050

casemanagement@adrgroup.co.uk

Practice Overview

Peter is a practicing solicitor and a partner of a large national firm. In his current role, he leads the commercial litigation team in Birmingham, a role he has held since January 2018.

Peter facilitates a negotiation using probing questions to assist the parties in clarifying their positions with a view to assisting them reach a settlement. In addition to being an accredited mediator, Peter is an experienced advocate in mediations, attending his first mediation shortly after qualifying as a solicitor in 2001.

Professional Background

Peter has a broad commercial litigation practice, acting for a range of clients based across the UK. Within Peter's practice, he has a particular interest in:

Corporate Litigation, and has a very good understanding of:-

Unfair Prejudice Claims;

Derivative Claims;

Claims involving the interpretation of articles of association and shareholders agreements;

Claims involving the breach of contractual, statutory and fiduciary duties.

Contractual Disputes;

Professional Negligence claims (primarily against other solicitors);

Defamation claims;

Enforcement of Restrictive Covenants and the recovery of confidential information.

Endorsements

"The mediator, Mr. Brewer was excellent and it was his skill/expertise that encouraged the parties to adopt the necessary mindset in order to reach a settlement". Legal Counsel

Areas of Specialism

Banking

Commercial

Company

Contract

Debt Recovery

Partnership
Shareholder Dispute