Practice Overview

Geoff is the principal of a boutique law firm based in Eton, Berkshire. With over 40 years' experience, Geoff has a broadly based general commercial practice with a focus on Commercial, Company, Contract, Property, Inheritance and Intellectual Property law. He is also no stranger to most aspects of litigation.

Geoff is known for getting straight to the root of a problem. Whilst he has a succinct analytical approach to mediation he remains friendly, with a sense of humour and connects easily with lawyers and clients alike. These are all attributes that are ideal in a mediator.

Professional Background

Geoff started his career at Allen & Overy before moving to a large regional firm and later went on to open his own firm in Eton.

Geoff's busy and varied practice is built on the foundation of his many loyal and substantial private and commercial clients.
